

WELCOME TO YPC OVERTURES!

Make your own special connections to the Orchestra!

Saturday, January 12, 2019, 12:45-1:45 PM

Orchestra Level

Very Young Composers Showcase

Running with the Animals: An Adventure in Composing!

An interactive performance featuring a new work by a student in the Philharmonic's Very Young Composers.

See program details on back.

Make Your Own Puppet!

Create a firefly puppet for a chance to light up your concert!

Upstairs

Instrument Tryouts

With volunteers from the All-City High School Orchestra

Violin! (1st Tier East)

Clarinet! (1st Tier West)

Trumpet! (2nd Tier West)

Support for Young People's Concerts is provided by The Theodore H. Barth Foundation and The Brodsky Family Foundation.

NEW YORK PHILHARMONIC
Jaap van Zweden Music Director

VERY YOUNG COMPOSERS SHOWCASE

Running with the Animals: An Adventure in Composing!

Tristan Hu (age 12) Armageddon

Jon Deak artistic director and host

Bill Gordh co-producer

Jessica Mays program manager,
Very Young Composers

Trey Makler teaching artist

Liam Burke clarinet

Paul Murphy trumpet

Stephen Dunn trombone

Brandon Ilaw percussion

About Very Young Composers

Created by composer Jon Deak, the New York Philharmonic's former Associate Principal Bass, Very Young Composers enables New York City children from diverse backgrounds to compose music for the Philharmonic and other musicians. The program has also spread worldwide to 15 countries. In every locale, Very Young Composers culminates in the creation of astonishing works of art that reveal the power of children's imaginations. For more information, visit nyphil.org/vyc.

Major support for Very Young Composers is provided by Susan and Elihu Rose.

Additional funding is provided by Muna and Basem Hishmeh; Mr. and Mrs. A. Slade Mills, Jr.; The Rochlis Family Foundation; The ASCAP Foundation; the Solender Family Funds; the UJA-Federation of New York; and The West Family.