

Leadership Giving

The support of each and every New York Philharmonic donor allows us to offer our audiences the finest of performances throughout the season. We extend our special thanks to those making substantial leadership gifts to support creative artistic endeavors, unique concert series, and impactful educational programs. To contribute or for more information, please contact Sam Cole, Director of Leadership Gifts, at coles@nyphil.org or call (212) 875-5983.

International Advisory Board of the New York Philharmonic

The Philharmonic established the International Advisory Board (IAB) to engage supporters from around the globe to serve as ambassadors in their respective home cities and countries. The financial support and participation of this international group increases the reach of the Philharmonic as it brings together people of different cultures through music and an appreciation of the Orchestra's rich history on the world stage. For more information, please contact Sam Cole, Director of Leadership Gifts, at coles@nyphil.org or call (212) 875-5983.

Patron Program

A Message from Carol D. Schaefer, Patron Chairman

It is my pleasure to acknowledge the extraordinary support of our Patron members, who are the driving force behind many of the Philharmonic's outreach and education programs. We thank our Patrons with exclusive benefits such as access to our VIP Patron Ticket Service and Patron Lounges, invitations to our private chamber music performances, and waived fees all season long. For more information, please contact Kristen Robinson, Director of Membership and Operations, at robinsonk@nyphil.org or call (212) 875-5681.

Volunteer Council of the New York Philharmonic

The Volunteer Council was created in 1980 to coordinate the talent, time, and energy of people who care about music and the New York Philharmonic. We are grateful to have such dedicated volunteers. If you are interested in becoming a member of the Philharmonic's Volunteer Council, please visit our webpage at nyphil.org/volunteer.

Heritage Society

In 1842 the founders of the New York Philharmonic had a vision for the future that has guided the evolution of our Orchestra through the generations. Today, individuals who include the Orchestra in their wills or trusts, or as a beneficiary of retirement accounts, are welcomed as members of the Heritage Society. For more information, please contact Emily Wells, Planned and Major Gifts Officer, at WellsE@nyphil.org or call (212) 875-5845.
